

Let's Celebrate Native Pollinators!

Across

- 3. Butterflies use this part of their body to drink nectar from flowers.
- 5. This pollinator group has colourful scales on its wings and is most often seen fluttering around flowers during the day.
- 6. To help local pollinators, it is encouraged to grow more _____ plants instead of exotic ones in our gardens.
- 7. In our gardens, we should aim to have a _____ of plant species to help various kinds of native pollinators.
- 8. This group of insects is widely considered the world's most significant pollinator.

Down

- 1. For butterflies to thrive in our gardens, it is important to have _____ plants as they provide food for caterpillars.
- 2. Pollinators do the important job of transferring _____ between flowers.
- 3. It is advisable to reduce the use of chemical _____ when gardening as they can be harmful to native pollinators.
- 4. An adult butterfly emerges from a _____.
- 5. Durians, the king of fruits, are pollinated by this animal.

WORDS

- chrysalis
- native
- pesticide
- host
- bat
- bee
- diversity
- pollen
- proboscis
- butterfly

nparkebuzz

Share your love for nature with us at
#nparkebuzz